

Office Hours: One Academic Life (Paperback)

By H N Hirsch

Quid Pro, LLC, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Even a cursory glance at today's headlines reveals that higher education is in crisis. Tuition outpaces inflation, states slash budgets, graduation rates decline, and technology threatens to reshape everything. Universities continue to crank out new PhDs, but many will become poorly paid members of a secondary, adjunct labor force teaching most of today's college courses. Scholars lucky enough to be on the tenure track must publish more and more, while students at large universities sit in ever larger lectures, seldom interacting with professors. Yet every year, thousands of applicants from the world over apply to America's most prestigious colleges and universities, and students and their families continue to spend huge sums on college. What are colleges and universities really like--from the inside? What do we do wrong, and what are we doing right? What is it like to be a professor and administrator at one of America's prestigious educational institutions? This memoir asks these questions, in a very personal way. This is the story of a serious scholar finding his vocation, his...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This publication is great. It is full of wisdom and knowledge. You will not really feel monotony at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for relating to when you ask me).
