LECTURE VI THE ACTS OF JUDAS THOMAS AND THE HYMN OF THE SOUL The art of telling a tale is perhaps the most wonderful of all human inventions, and the East has ever been famous for story-telling. We shall therefore not be surprised to find that the most striking and original piece of Syriac Literature is a Novel. By a curious chance, which I suspect would prove to be, if we knew more, less a chance than an intimate literary connexion, this Novel contains within it an independent Poem which itself is the most beautiful production not of Syriac Literature only, but I venture to assert of all the literary activity of the early Church. The Novel is the Acts of Judas Thomas, the Apostle of India: the Poem is known to modern scholars as the Hymn of the Soul. The work called...
