Excerpt: . chapter iii. william hunter--his life. A Brief-epitome of William Hunter s career may suffice for the present purpose. He was the seventh child of the family, and was born at Long Calderwood, on the 23rd of May, 1718. He was educated at the parish school, and evidently was a precocious boy. In November, 1731, at the age of thirteen and a half years he entered the University of Glasgow. He studied there for five years. He held a bursary of the Bajan Class of the value of ten pounds a year, for four years. The term Bajan was employed in the French and Scotch Universities, and is evidently a corruption of bee jaune (yellow beak), an expression meant to designate a nestling or unfledged bird. The epithet (Bejants) is still applied to freshmen in St. Andrews. It had been his intention to enter...
