Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A Kingdom Divided, The Error and the Accuracy was conceived out of the notion that the modern day ecclesiastical movement has been teaching and preaching ideas that have been formulated centuries ago by the Roman Catholic Church. Following some very insightful investigations, research and vigorous study into just a dozen of these doctrines, David Ruzzo reveals beyond any doubt that the papacy has molded the minds of the world to its way of thinking. In his research, David sets out to expose these false concepts through pure Biblical interpretation and simple logic. People (Christian and non-Christian alike) have been the victims of mind control perpetrated by the Catholic church who has held the hidden agenda of domination through tactics of teaching religious submission to an assumed intellectually superior class of religious leaders. Although many books have been written on the atrocities of the Catholic church, none have exposed its deception and outright irrational beliefs as this work purposes. In this work David asks some very pointed questions and goes head to head with some of the most misunderstood and misguided doctrines of the church. About the author After a ten year stretch in the US military (Army and Air Force), David briefly attended East Coast Bible College in Charlotte NC from 1983-1984. Not long after his enrollment he was soon confronted with the fact that there was something that just did not seem right with traditional Biblical teachings. After a three year failed marriage and various problems (all linked to his then religious principles) David was inspired into a personal research project in studying the origins of the church's beliefs. Born in West Warwick,...
