Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Prehistoric Archaeology and the Old Testament: Being the Donnellan Lectures Delivered Before the University of Dublin in 1906 1907, Enlarged, and With Notes and Appendices The aim of the following Lectures is to trace the course and progress of modern scientific discovery in regard to the earth and man, and the position of the latter as the last and final issue of the evolutionary process, which, under the informing presence and power of God, immanent yet transcendent, has brought him and all things into existence. However much this presentation may differ from ideas derived from a pre-scientific era, the endeavour is made to show that in the results attained by a study of the ancient Scriptures of Israel under the light of the Higher Criticism, a method may be discovered which shall enable science and religion to meet and clasp hands. In one word, the truth of the Christian religion and of the revelation of Jesus Christ, the place of the Church as the appointed channel whereby grace is conveyed from God to man, and of the Sacraments as the vehicles and means of grace, is shown not to be bound up with the Jewish cosmogony nor with a literal acceptance as historical facts of the legends in which the poets and prophets of Israel figured to themselves the origin and first development of the story of man, and of their own history.
